Press Release

"Acklands-Grainger Point Man Program Returns for Another Season to help Enhance Local Health Care!"

September 20, 2010, Lloydminster AB/SK- The Lloydminster Region Health Foundation, Lloydminster Jr. A Bobcats and Acklands-Grainger are proud to announce the return of a partnership that is sure to score big points for enhanced healthcare in our community.

The 3rd annual Acklands Grainger Bobcat's Point Man program returns for the 2010-2011 season, with point man Cooper Limb bringing the program to life. For every point Limb accumulates, Acklands-Grainger will donate $25 to the Health Foundation. During playoffs, the ante is upped, and Acklands-Grainger will donate $50 to the Health Foundation. Scott McGregor, Manager of Acklands-Grainger's Lloydminster Branch, says, "We are excited to be part of the Point Man Program again this year. We've seen momentum build over the past two years, and I think this year will be our best yet! Acklands Grainger believes in supporting healthcare in our community, so this program is a perfect match".

The Lloydminster Bobcats Marketing Manager Michele Foster added, "Cooper Limb is already showing such promise on the team, and will be a great player to have at the front of a program like this. We are excited to see the success of this partnership again this year!"

Proceeds from the Acklands Grainger Bobcat's Point Man will be directed toward priority projects, like the Heart Health Initiative, at Lloydminster Hospital. Executive Director Georgina Altman says "The commitment Acklands Grainger has shown to enhancing health care in our community is inspiring. We know that the success of this program will bring us one step closer to reaching our goals for enhancements to health care in our city"

Point Man Cooper Limb, #11, says, "I am excited at the chance to make a difference to the Health Foundation, and am honored to be named the Point Man this year. Acklands Grainger has set up a great program!."

The Lloydminster Region Health Foundation is in its 28th year of providing essential funding to enhance healthcare in our community. Since inception, the Health Foundation has invested over $13.7 million dollars, (over $8.3 million in the last 5 years alone) into the community.
