Press Release

"Acklands-Grainger Point Man scores big for local health care enhancements in the '08-'09 season!"

March 13, 2009, Lloydminster AB/SK- The Lloydminster Region Health Foundation, Lloydminster Jr. A Bobcats and Acklands-Grainger are thrilled with the results of this year's Acklands Grainger Point Man program.

Early in the season, Acklands-Grainger's branch manager, Rick Cowan, committed to donate $25 per point earned to Lloydminster Region Health Foundation. He says, "I couldn't be happier with the proceeds of this year's Point Man program. The Health Foundation is a great cause. I'm so happy to support local health care and our community in this way. Brendan did a great job"

This year's point man, #22, Brendan Turner, earned a total of 66 points, for a total donation of $1650!

Executive Director of Lloydminster Region Health Foundation, Georgina Altman, is thrilled, "This partnership with Acklands Grainger is a great example of how local businesses can be involved in supporting health care enhancements in a fun and unique way. Every dollar makes a difference, and the proceeds from this program will help so many people in our community!"

Point Man Brendan Turner says, "I really enjoyed being the Acklands -Grainger Point Man for the 2008-2009 Season. I am excited that we were able to raise a good amount of money for a great cause such as the Lloydminster Region Health Foundation."

The Lloydminster Region Health Foundation is in its 25th year of providing essential funding to enhance healthcare in our community. Since inception, over $7 million dollars, (over $4 million in the last 5 years alone) has been invested into the community by the Foundation.
