"Agland Makes a $50,000 Gift to Lloydminster Region Health Foundation"

December 10, 2009- Lloydminster, AB/SK- Just in time for the holiday season, the Lloydminster Region Health Foundation (LRHF) is proud to announce a significant gift in support of local healthcare: a $50,000 donation from Agland.

"We are proud to make this donation to the Health Foundation on behalf of the customers who support us so well and the staff that work hard for them," says Cam Kay, spokesperson for Agland. "We believe in giving back to the region that has given so much to us. Our families, friends, employees, and customers use our local health services. It is very important to us that the special services the Hospital, long-term care facilities and community programs provide are available whenever we need them."

"Agland is a strong community partner that shows their community spirit and support in many ways," says Georgina Altman, Executive Director with Lloydminster Region Health Foundation. "This gift will go a long way to support enhanced health services right here in Lloydminster for the residents of this area. Our immediate focus is in technology and innovation, long-term care needs and recruitment and retention of physicians and staff. Thank you to the staff and management at Agland for agreeing with this vision. "

Agland started in 1958 in Lloydminster, AB as a John Deere equipment dealer with a staff of six. Today, Agland employs a staff of 100 and has locations in Lloydminster, Vermilion, and St. Paul. Agland specializes in excellent customer service and quality products. Their products include John Deere and Bobcat.

The Lloydminster Region Health Foundation is a registered non-profit organization. LRHF is currently in its 26th year of raising funds in support of healthcare in the Lloydminster community. Since inception, the Health Foundation has invested $11 million dollars into the community, $7.5 million in the past five years alone.
