

For Immediate Release

September 11, 2009

Press Release

"Acklands-Grainger Point Man Program Returns for Another Season to help Enhance Local Health Care!"

September 10, 2009, Lloydminster AB/SK- The Lloydminster Region Health Foundation, Lloydminster Jr. A Bobcats and Acklands-Grainger are proud to announce a renewed partnership that is sure to score big points for enhanced healthcare in our community.

The second annual Acklands Grainger Bobcat's Point Man program returns for the 2009-2010 season, with point man Chad Hohmann bringing the program to life. For every point Hohmann accumulates, Acklands-Grainger will donate $25 to the Health Foundation. During playoffs, the ante is upped, and Acklands-Grainger will donate $50 to the Health Foundation. Scott McGregor, Manager of Acklands-Grainger's Lloydminster Branch, says, "Last year's Point Man program was a huge success, so we really excited to be part of it again. Acklands Grainger believes in supporting healthcare in our community, so we felt like this program was a perfect match".

The Lloydminster Bobcats Marketing Manager Dave Orr added, "Chad Hohmann is already showing such promise on the team, and will be a great player to have at the front of a program like this. We are excited to see the success of this partnership again this year!"

Proceeds from the Acklands Grainger Bobcat's Point Man will be directed toward priority projects at Lloydminster Hospital. Executive Director Georgina Altman and the Health Foundation team are "...very excited to work with Acklands Grainger and the Lloydminster Bobcats again this year. Every dollar, and every point scored, makes a difference, and this program will bring us one step closer to reaching our goals for enhancements to health care in our city"

Point Man Chad Hohmann, #27, says, "I am excited at the chance to make a difference to the Health Foundation, and am honored to be named the Point Man this year. Acklands Grainer has set up a great program, and I am excited to see how successful this program will be again this year."

The Lloydminster Region Health Foundation is in its 26th year of providing essential funding to enhance healthcare in our community. Since inception, over $7 million dollars, (over $4 million in the last 5 years alone) has been invested into the community by the Health Foundation.

Media: For more information contact
Kristine Alexander, Mktg and Development Coordinator
Lloydminster Region Health Foundation
306-820-6161

Dave Orr, Marketing Manager
Lloydminster Jr. A Bobcats
780-871-0900